MEET ACT CANDIDATES FOR THE FEDERAL ELECTION

PUBLIC FORUM 16 June 2016

7.00 pm Albert Hall

Commonwealth Avenue, Yarralumla

Hear the Candidates' views about:

- what should be the national responsibilities for planning in the ACT; and
- preserving the unique characteristics of Canberra as the nation's capital.

Questions could cover:

- location of Federal departments in relation to impacts on town centres, employment, transport and parking;
- impact of recent changes to the National Capital Plan;
- heritage listing of Canberra in its overall design concept;
- ACT government projects that affect areas under NCA responsibility such as City to the Lake, Manuka Oval and West Tuggeranong.
